

APRIL

*You are all sons of God through faith in Jesus Christ
Galatians.3:26*

Most of our Imara scholars are Christian and they and their teachers will celebrate Easter at school. May they be richly blessed knowing that the risen Lord is with them through difficult times, comforting them, and enabling them to cope in all situations.

S is a young Imara scholar who suffers from flashbacks after seeing his father cruelly executed by the LRA. He is troubled by the nightmares. Sylvia writes, "I asked him to pray each night before bed that the Lord would put His arms around him and give him peace . The following week I saw S at school and enquired how he was. He replied, "I have the armour of God on me. No arrows can pierce it." How wonderful, we have such lovely Christian children!"

Please pray for the youngsters. They have all suffered trauma in their young lives. Pray they will have peace in their hearts knowing Jesus is with them.

IMARA-UGANDA PRAYER LETTER

For I know I have plans for you, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Jer. 29:11

As the New Year begins, our young scholars are on their long holiday from school and are helping their parents and guardians at home.

The four young girls pictured have completed primary school with the support of Imara-Uganda Education Fund. Give thanks that this has been possible. As they receive their primary leaving exam results this month, may the Lord guide them and us as we plan the next step in their education. Please pray for these girls as big decisions are made for their future that will lift them out of poverty.

Former Imara-Uganda scholar, Kevin, will join the charity's Ugandan team part time from this month. Pray for Kevin as she begins her work. We believe she will be a wonderful blessing to the Imara scholars and the charity as a whole.

FEBRUARY

Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.

Mark 11:24

Sylvia and Belinda will be in Uganda this month to see the students and help them plan the way forward.

Imara scholars, Sam and Pope will receive their O level results this month and Wilberforce awaits his A level results. What an exciting time with big decisions to be made for the future!

Lydia, who is a disabled, will start at a new school this term. The school is able to cater for her special needs. She will be assessed and helped to reach her full potential. Please pray that she will feel happy and comfortable in her new surroundings.

Andrew will begin a two-year A level course at a new school. Pray that he will settle quickly and work hard so that his dream of becoming a doctor one day will come true.

Dear Lord, lead these young people into the path of your choosing; give them patience to follow in that pathway, however great the difficulties or uncertainties that may arise. Amen

MARCH

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 1 Corinthians 13:4

There are so many orphan children in the area in which our charity works. Many were orphaned during the time of the LRA rebellion. HIV/AIDS is a huge problem in the area, too, and many of the children have lost their parents as a result of AIDS. Most families have several children. Grandparents, aunts and uncles can suddenly find themselves responsible for the care of a whole orphaned family and they may already have a large family of their own. Older children can be the sole carers of younger siblings. It is hard for peasant farmers to earn a good enough living to feed their own children and when they take on the care of a relative's children, life is very tough. Life is a struggle for single parents too. Please pray for the parents and guardians of the Imara scholars.

Father, we lift to you the parents and guardians of the Imara scholars, giving thanks for them and for the way many have taken in the children of relatives. We pray that they will not only be able to care for the physical needs of the children, but that they will create homes where there is security, healing and love. Amen
